

Summer Session Outlined

Registration for summer session classes at El Camino College will be held in the student activity building June 17 for students on campus and June 18 for the public. Hours will be 1 to 3 p.m. and from 5:30 to 7 p.m.

Classes scheduled for the June 19 to July 31 session and the August 5 to 30, post session, are available in the registration office.

Information regarding requirements for placement examinations, immunization and veterans' subsistence is included on the schedule.

South Senior Heads Schools During a Day

In observance of the 41st annual Boys' Week, which is sponsored by the Council for Promotion of Boys' Welfare, Dan Ely, a senior at South High School was chosen to act as county superintendent of school recently.

Dan spent the day meeting with Dr. C. C. Trillingham's staff composed of Dr. Bruce Walters, Dr. Bertram Betts, and Dr. J. Blaha, visiting the various offices of the county school system, and touring other county facilities.

FUTURE SERVICEMEN . . . Snappy marching of the reserve units gave hint of tomorrow's servicemen during Saturday's Armed Forces Day Parade in Torrance, described by many as the best in the four-year history of the nationally recognized event.

North Names Fall Officers

North High School's class officers for the fall semester were announced at the recently held Inter-Club Council dance by Mike Jacobs and Bruce Cole, ASB president and vice president.

Senior officers are: Judy Morgan, president; Stuart Goodgold, vice president; Joyce Weekly, secretary; Nancy Prior, treasurer; Susan Shiming, girls league representative, and Mike Dominguez, boys league representative.
